These are powerful purifying mantras to place on the body of one who is dying or has died. These should be placed with the mantra side down on the body.